

Science Knowledge Organiser

Year 4

Summer (ii)

What are the positive and negative impacts of humans on the environment?

Substantive Knowledge - The positive effects of nature reserves, ecologically planned parks and garden ponds and the negative effects of population and development, litter and deforestation.

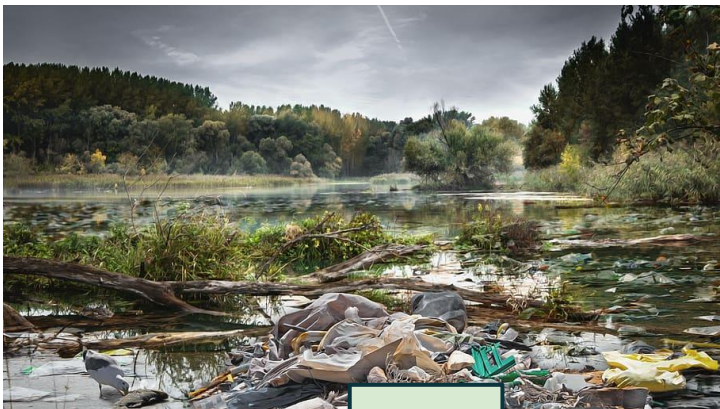

To know that environments change and that this can sometimes pose dangers to living things.

Nature reserves

Deforestation

Litter

To know the positive and negative human impact on environments, for example, the positive effects of nature reserves, ecologically planned parks and garden ponds with the negative effects of population and development, litter and deforestation.

Core vocabulary

deforestation - clearing a wide area of trees ecosystems- an ecosystem is a natural environment where everything interacts to support life.

threaten- someone or something to be vulnerable or at risk